AWARD-WINNING BLOODY MARYS

"Hell's Kitchen's Bloody Mary is far and away the best bloody in the Twin Cities. Served with a beef stick and pickle, their housemade mix captures the perfect level of spice --not too hot for the average drinker, but you'll damn well know you're drinking it. The Hell's Mix is thick, fantastically complex, and as classy as we've come from a restaurant that does just about everything well." ~City Pages
