DIGESTIF and BITTERS SHOOTERS

After a hearty meal among friends, Europeans and Midwesterners have enjoyed a tradition of shooting digestif aromatic bitters to settle the stomach and alert the mind. These modest 1 oz. pours are not meant to be sipped, but downed in one shot. Go on...it's for your health!

Housemade Aromatic Bitters

Brewed for over a month, lightly sweetened with demerara syrup. 4.95

Underberg

Served in individual bottles, these German bitters are aged in Slovenian oak to enhance their already complex flavors. A great way to feel bright and alert after a good meal. 4.95

Fernet Branca

Packaged as a medicinal cure-all during prohibition, this strong and herbaceous digestif traces its origins back to 1845 in Italy. 4.95

Housemade Limoncello

Created in-house with sweet and zesty lemons, our fresh and fragrant liquor is inspired by its Italian roots. 4.95

Norseman Olympia

Named for the lush green moss of Olympic National Park, this Minneapolis-made liqueur was made in the image of a green chartreuse: completely herbaceous with a nose of peppermint, parsley, and fresh sage. 4.95
